

Suffolk Day

To celebrate Suffolk Day, residents from local nursing homes were invited to Felixstowe Town Hall gardens for the 'raising of the Suffolk flag' event.

The Mayor gave a speech and three children from Colneis, along with children from Felixstowe School, read the Suffolk Heart poem. It was enjoyed by everybody. The children performed it confidently, with wonderful expression.

This was a great opportunity to develop their public speaking skills.

